Overview of the Adastria "dot st" E-commerce Site

Operation of "dot st" was suspended from Aug. 8 to Sep. 12

- Reason: Replacement of this website's system with a new one was planned for the end of July in order to add capacity and upgrade services due to the outlook for sales growth
However, there were problems with the switch to the new system
- Response: Operations were returned to the original system due to the decision to prioritize the site's stability and resumption of services
Returned points and reissued coupons that expired during the suspension
Also held a sale for returning 20\% of points to members after operations resumed
- Impact: Start of an omni-channel service has been pushed back to FY2021/02 or later Currently examining the impact of the suspension on second half earnings performance

Goals for Operations in ASIA

LOCAL

Weaknesses in the past in overseas operations

- Branding was difficult because the multi-format business model resulted in store openings primarily for increasing the scale of operations
- Overreliance on brands originating in Japan made overseas operations reliant by concepts and decisions in Japan

The objective of Adastria's business operations in other countries Use fashion to enrich the lives of customers living in areas where we operate stores "Who are our customers and where do they live?"

Different cultures $\rightarrow$ Different seasons and trends $\rightarrow$ Different customer life styles

Raise merchandise accuracy by selling items that match local needs

$\checkmark$ Reflect differences of seasons and temperatures between Japan and other countries
